- ▶ Levels 15 to 24
- ▶ 30 fiction titles
- ▶ Introduction of chapter book concept

The PM Early Chapter Books are 30 all-new titles at Levels 15–24. Books at Levels 15–19 have three chapters, and those at Levels 20–24 have four chapters, providing children with a gentle introduction to the chapter book concept.

Readers will encounter some favourite PM characters from earlier levels and meet a variety of new recurring characters that they will be able to identify with and relate to instantly.

The PM Early Chapter Books are meticulously levelled with carefully-crafted story structures and high-interest storylines that will appeal to children and stimulate their interest in reading.

Teaching notes appear on all inside front covers, highlighting:

- ▶ running words
- ▶ key teaching points
- ▶ key questions
- ▶ vocabulary enrichment

Chapter 2
Hanson's Toys

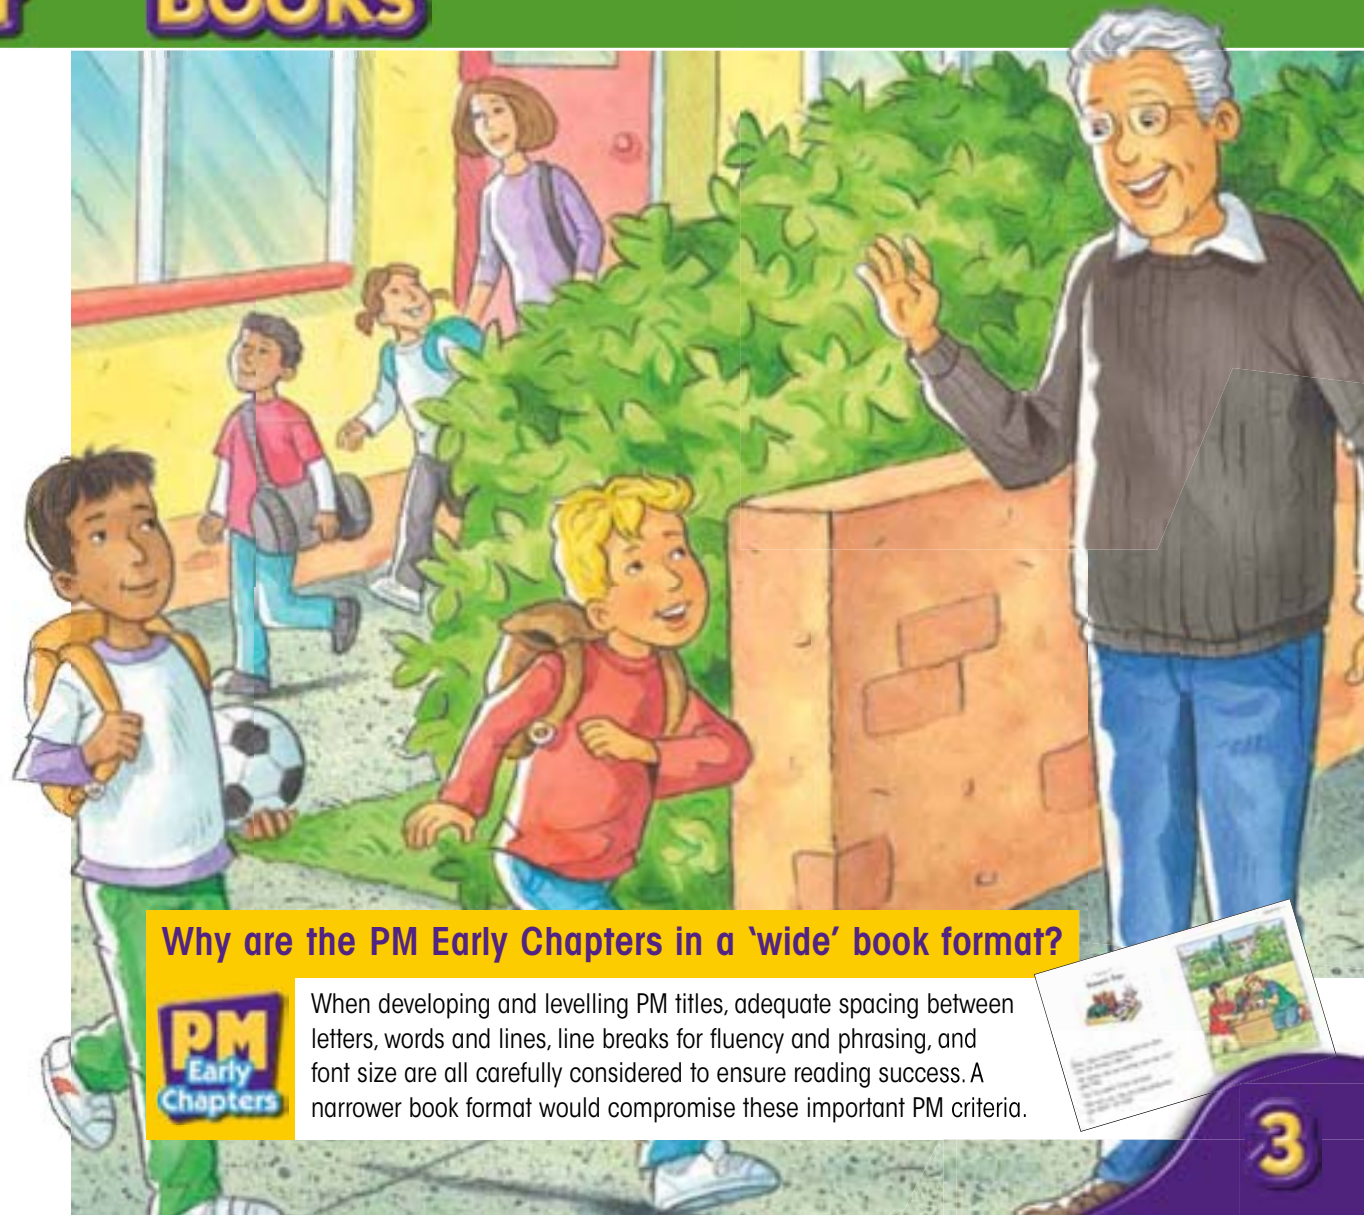

Level 15's David Hanson, from next door, came out carrying a large box.

"Hi, Hanson. Are you recycling some toys, now?" asked Tilly.

"Yes," he replied. "Come and look."

Tilly went over, but you really going over your shoes?" she asked.

Books at levels 15–19 have three chapters, books at levels 20–24 have four chapters.

Why are the PM Early Chapters in a 'wide' book format?

When developing and levelling PM titles, adequate spacing between letters, words and lines, line breaks for fluency and phrasing, and font size are all carefully considered to ensure reading success. A narrower book format would compromise these important PM criteria.
